

Proclamation

Whereas the position of Inspector and Code Enforcement Officer is one of indisputable value to the City Council and citizens of the City of Berkeley, Missouri; and

Whereas Michael Maloney has been a City employee since February 2, 2004 and has continuously fulfilled his duties in the Inspections Department with dedication towards the betterment of the community for nearly 20 years; and

Whereas Michael Maloney is viewed by the City of Berkeley as an exemplary employee, one who has issued thousands of citations, inspected countless buildings, wrote an innumerable number of permits, and whose work ethic and productivity has set the bar for future employees; and

Whereas Michael Maloney is viewed by his coworkers as a member of their Berkeley family, someone who is selflessly devoted to his responsibilities, someone who is always willing to share his wisdom and experience, someone whose demeanor helps create a joyful office environment, and someone who is a sterling example of what a coworker should be,

Now, Therefore Be It Proclaimed, I, Babatunde Deinbo, Mayor of the City of Berkeley, Missouri, on behalf of the entire City Council, do hereby declare April 28, 2023 as “Michael Maloney Day” in the City of Berkeley, Missouri and wish him a happy and healthy retirement.

Babatunde Deinbo, Mayor