WHAT IS INSPIRED STL?

Inspired STL is an community organization started and personally funded by myself, for the community by planning to provide multiple in house services such as limited child care, professional counseling and monthly workshops.

HOW IT STARTED?

- Becoming involved with law enforcement late 2020 and returning to the St. Louis North County area and beginning policing career.
- Becoming involved with community engagement and seeing the various lifestyles within the community of Wellston, MO.
- Employed with Cape Girardeau County Sheriff's Office as a Correctional Officer. Began a non-profit in an attempt to aid previously incarcerated subjects readjust to human life by finding job placement and other recreations.

PURPOSE FOR ORGANIZATION

Helping youth, men, women, single parents, etc., with the services provided to aide in an easier life.

- Support Groups
- Community Events
- Fundraising

FUTURE SERVICES

- Little Feet's Child Care: Limited child capacity extending between 3-4 children per teacher assigned. Catering to ages 3-10 years old (Pending state approval & state regulations)
- Open Minds Counseling: Personal and group counseling sessions facilitated by licensed professionals capable of addressing anger management and health concerns (Pending state approval & state regulations)
- Gifted Workshops: Daily workshops aimed to teaching new skills through interactive group activities and social engagement.

1 - 3 YEAR PLAN

- Planned assumption for the organization as far as placement and completion within 3 years and would consist of the child care service being in a state regulated and approved facility.
- Counseling services would be complete within the first 2 years and based solely from the counselor's availability.
- Workshops would be based monthly. Workshops ranging from learning financial literacy, social gatherings and support groups that could also be held 3-4 times out of the month with the workshop.
